

A Levels?

BTECs?

A level: design and technology, product design (3D), product design (textiles), systems and control technology, food technology, Engineering,

Apprenticeships

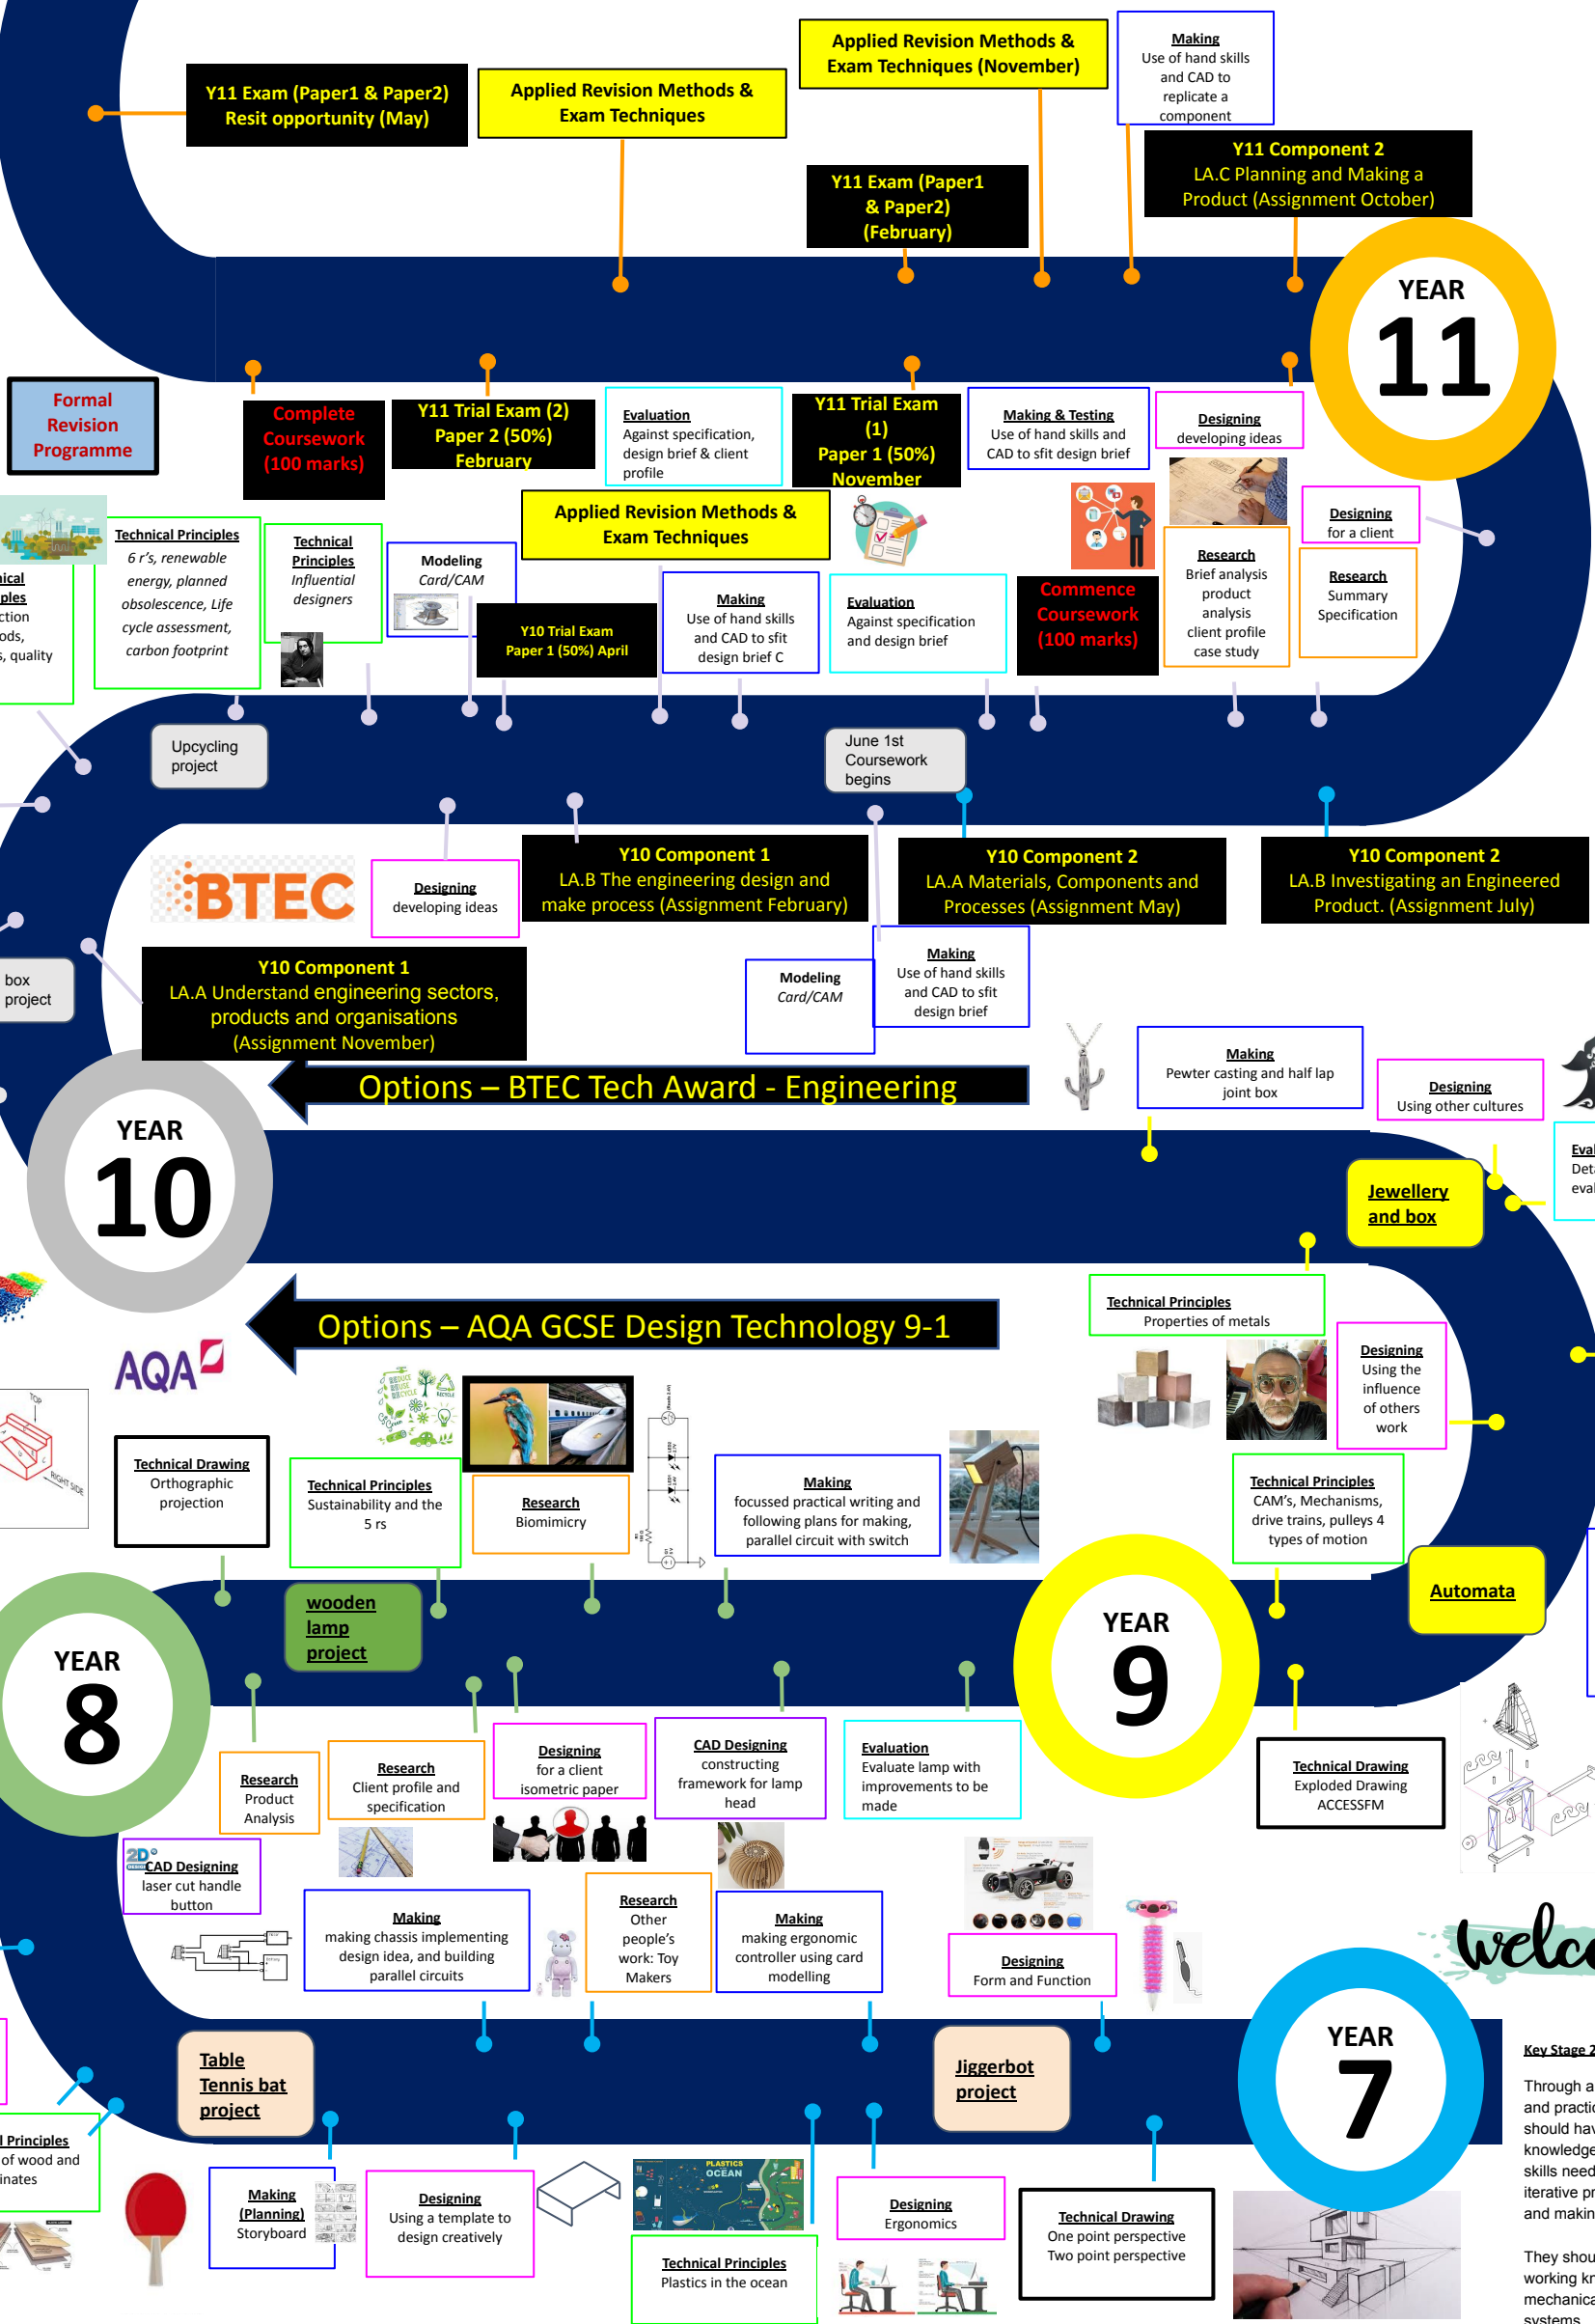

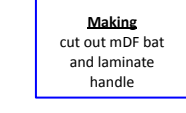

Post-16 Options

EXAMS

Continue your lifelong love of learning and personal development

Apply for post-16 option(s)

welcome

Key Stage 2
Through a variety of creative and practical activities, pupils should have been taught the knowledge, understanding and skills needed to engage in an iterative process of designing and making.

They should have some working knowledge of some mechanical and electrical systems.

They should have some basic experience of CAD/CAM